English Department Has Ideal Method for Training Teachers

Majors Prepare Teaching Schedule With Regular Guidance of Adviser.

By JOHN M. PRICE
According to Dr. Paul Geim, director of student teaching at the University of Minnesota, the method used by Northwest Missouri State College to train English teachers can be classed as ideal.

Dr. Geim made this statement at a recent North Central Association workshop in the teaching of English. He referred to the system used by the English department of the College in which each English major takes his special methods course in English with the same member of the department who serves as his practice teaching supervisor and adviser.

By this means a student majoring in English is able to tie more easily the theories he learns in his methods courses with the applications of these principles learned in his practice teaching.

Three Teach Methods
Three members of the English department have the dual roles of teaching methods courses at the College and supervising practice teaching at the Horace Mann training school. They are Miss Anne Arnold, supervisor, Miss Dorthie Hall, and Mr. James Rybak. In both their methods classes and their practice teaching supervision, the teachers give students the opportunity to have actual experiences in dealing with the children, getting first hand impressions of their reactions in this way. Student teachers may also start their own collections of practical teaching materials as a part of their class work.

Since the war the English department at Northwest State has steadily built up its student membership until today its enrollment is back to pre-war standards. Approximately 40 students are majoring in the subject and many more have chosen it for their minor.

Goal Is Training of Teachers
The main goal of the English department is to prepare its majors to teach language and literature at any school level and to supply all future teachers with a cultural background in literature so that they may get the fullest enjoyment from the literature of the world. The department also offers students opportunity to develop the ability for clear written expression.

Besides courses in literature of both the past and the present, composition and special writing classes are offered. All members of the department also give individual instruction to student writers who have special problems or interests.

Department Has Browsing Room
The English department is noted at the College for its convenient and well planned arrangement. The department offices are situated in a suite directly adjoining the English classrooms on the third floor of the southeast wing of the Administration building. A feature of the department is the browsing room.

Agriculture Club Brings Mr. Baker to Banquet

Committees for the banquet are as follows: program, Ralph Cushman, Ross Wilson; menu, Delbert Gabbert, Kenneth Kilbur; invitations, Jim Montague, Dick Phipps; banquet, Mr. F. B. Houghton, Maurice Nelson, and Roy Rinehart.

It's Our Problem Too!

KEEP CAMPUS CLEAN
The joint citizenship committee of the student government and faculty ask the cooperation of students and faculty members in helping to keep the campus and buildings clean and attractive. The College high school is cooperating in this request. Please remember these suggestions:

1. Keep on the walks.
2. Place all waste paper in waste baskets.
3. Men and boys do not wear their hats in the building.
4. Smoking is limited—not to take place in any of the corridors or classrooms.
5. Each one has a responsibility in a democracy to be a good citizen.

Let everyone unite to make this college the most attractive in the state. — The Student, Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg.

U. S. Navy Band Will Present Three Concerts

The United States Navy Band will present three concerts when it comes to this campus Thursday, April 27.

The two afternoon concerts will be devoted to popular music, jazz classics and novelties that are meant to be sheer fun for the student audiences. The latest songs from the current Hit Parade will be a specialty.

Lieutenant Commander Charles Brendler, the conductor, has selected the numbers for the night program with the view of pleasing genuine music lovers of all ages.

Since most of the members of the Navy Band have played in the world's most famous bands before becoming members of the famous military group, they have formed a preference for certain composers. Tchaikowsky is their favorite, but Wagner, Brahms, Beethoven, Mozart, Bach and Strauss all rate high in their esteem.

Dressed to perfection in their navy blue and gold, the musicians will play "great music" for all three concerts.

It's Happened!

There she stands—magnificent, splendid, gleaming in the morning sunlight! Can't you see it? The new Student Union!

Shucks, no, it isn't up yet, but did you see those plans? Man o' man, is it ever gonna be somethin'! And it's designed by Boschen and Bayerl.

There will be two stories and in the center foreground of each story will be large spacious rooms 36 by 49. On the first floor this big room will be used as the dining hall, seating 200. On the second it will be a lounge. On each side are 20 by 30 rooms which can seat 65 or be used for various activities.

At the ends are two more rooms 16 by 40. The one on the left will be multi-purpose; the one on the right will be a co-op store snack bar.

The kitchen is located in the back and its size is 24 by 67. Of course there are many other little rooms, too, and their being there makes investigation interesting.

The second floor is somewhat like the first, only behind the lounge will be a hall called "Memorial Hall."

All in all, it's a pretty wonderful structure. You can't help being proud!

Assembly Committee Has Program Arrangement

Only six assembly programs per quarter will be scheduled next year! Dr. Sterling Surrey, chairman of the committee on assemblies and entertainments, has found that the majority of his committee members favor such an arrangement.

Assemblies, for the benefit of the students, will consist of three two-hour and three one-hour programs. Dr. Surrey has indicated that the Music Guild of Maryville may cooperate with the College committee in selecting the talent for some of the programs.

Nine large programs and nine small ones will thus complete the assembly schedule for the academic year, according to the chairman. No decisions have yet been made concerning entertainments and dates, but in a meeting, Monday, March 27, members of the committee expressed approval of many of the programs available.

In addition to the chairman, others attending the meeting were as follows: Dr. Paul McNutt, chairman of the music department; Miss Bonnie Magill, acting chairman of women's physical education; Mr. Robert Gee, of the speech department; Miss Violette Hunter, of the English department.

Mrs. John Mauzey, of the foreign language department; Sammy Carpenter, president of the Student Senate; Bill Elam, Monty Piner, and Zea Grissinger, members of the Senior Class appointed by the Senate to represent the student body.

Naval Reservists Plan Summer Tests

This summer will find local Naval Reservists prowling about the countryside testing their radio equipment in simulated emergencies. The unit has several portable receivers and transmitters which will be used in the area surrounding Maryville to carry out emergency communications plans. The operators will try to contact the base station at the training center under varying conditions.

Smallest of the portable equipment is the TBY "walky-talky" radio of which the unit has two. These battery-powered sets can easily be carried about on a man's back and have a range of four miles.

Will Cover Great Distances
Where greater distances must be covered the TBX transmitter receiver may be used. It uses battery power for receiving and a hand-cranking generator for transmitting and can be carried about in sections and set up almost anywhere.

In case of power failure at the base station, a generator driven by a gasoline engine can be used to operate the transmitters and receivers. It can also be moved by truck or jeep to operate lights and radios at a field station.

Other pieces of equipment, such as the TCS transmitter and receiver, are designed to operate from storage batteries and can be installed in an auto, truck, or jeep.

Work Nears Completion
Work on the training center is nearing completion. Mr. William Ward and Mr. Hansen from the Industrial Engineer's office at Great Lakes were in Maryville for ten days recently to install the transmitters and receivers.

The training center has two "decks" full of equipment. The lower "deck" consists of a radio and demonstration equipment.

General W. Wilbur Speaks at College

Former Army Officer Says Food Barrel Lid Fits Tight in England.

A lack of food is one of the main factors behind unhappy and disgruntled people in Western Europe, according to General W. H. Wilbur, retired army man, who spoke before a College assembly Tuesday morning, March 21. "A Personal Report on England" was Mr. Wilbur's topic.

"As long as people have their stomachs full, they will be contented, and if not, anything might happen. Starvation is the most important cause of war," said the General.

General Is Shocked.
Mr. Wilbur was "shocked" at the conditions that were present in England. The government has clamped a tight lid on the English food barrel. Every basic food has been rationed to the people with the exception of potatoes.

"The tax situation in England is not in very good shape, the rich people being taxed to extremes. All the people, however, are taxed heavily from high taxes on every thing they buy. This purchase tax runs all the way from 30% to 100%," he added.

Government Kills Incentive
One of the most shocking comments made by Mr. Wilbur was that the government has "killed their incentive and they no longer have the will to work." The British people are broken in spirit and mind.

The world traveler also spoke briefly on conditions in Germany, France and Czechoslovakia. He answered questions by the audience at the close of his address.

Miss Chloe E. Millikan Attends ACE Conference

Two students, Phyllis Crawford, Torbor, Iowa, and Lois McDermott, Orient, Iowa, will attend the conference as delegates from the Maryville branch of A. C. E.

He Leads the Band

Lieutenant Commander Charles Brendler, conductor of the Navy Band, which will give three concerts here, Thursday, April 27, enlisted in the Navy when he was only 15 and went to sea aboard the U. S. Florida with a rating that drew him the princely pay of $17.16 a month. He has played his way to the top, the highest top any musician has achieved in the Regular Navy.

O. Brightwell Becomes New Lieutenant Colonel

General John A. Harris, Adjutant General of Missouri, has announced the promotion of Major Orville S. Brightwell to Lt. Col. Field Artillery. Lt. Col. Brightwell is the commanding officer of Battalion Headquarters and Headquarters Battery of the 129th Field Artillery Battalion, both of which are located in Maryville. He is a graduate of the College, having received a B. S. degree in Education.

High School Play Day Is Planned by W. A. A.

Sponsored by Miss Bonnie Magill, acting chairman of the Women's Physical Education department, the Women's Athletic Association will hold the 14th annual Play Day for high school girls of the Northwest Missouri District, on April 29.

A. tags; Francis Kirkpatrick, committee to stamp ties; Margaret Berry, award ribbons; Charlotte Turner, ribbons for all girls; Joyce Werhli, addressing envelopes; and Mary Lou Neville, cutting material.

Twenty-Five Art Students Make Trip to Des Moines

Miss Olive DeLuce, chairman of the art department, and Mr. Ellery Gibson of the Horace Mann art department accompanied by twenty-five art majors and minors visited points of interest in Des Moines, March 23.

The group observed art in the elementary and secondary levels in Des Moines. All the art departments were good, particularly concerning the craft work. The guide for the trip was Mrs. Bernice Setzer, art supervisor of Des Moines schools.

Roosevelt High, East High, Perkins Elementary School, the Smouse School for physically disabled children, and the Drake University Art School were visited. Considerable time was spent at the Des Moines Art Center where the group saw the Eakins display and another by contemporary Iowans.

New Closing Hours Are Scheduled at Dormitory

At a discussion of a dormitory council committee and faculty advisers, a plan for new closing hours at Women's Residence Hall was devised, to be tried as an experiment, to become effective Friday, March 31, and to continue for six weeks. The proposed hours are as follows: Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, 9:30; Sunday and Wednesday, 10:30; Friday and Saturday, 12.

The purpose of this change is an effort to encourage more rest during the week. As the rules are now, too many of the girls don't start studying until after 10:30. Many others have clothes to wash or mend or hair to put up plus a certain amount of visiting to do after 10:30. Thus too many are still up and around at 1, 2, and 3 o'clock in the morning.

The later closing hours are approved by Miss Martha Locke, Mrs. Nell Thompson, and Miss Kathryn McKee so long as students make wholesome use of the extra opportunity to go to St. Joseph or to get something to eat after the second show in Maryville.

College Band Returns From Three-Day Concert

Today, the College Band returns from a three-day concert trip to Maryville, Gallatin, Cameron, Smithville, Liberty, Hamilton, Chillicothe, Trenton, Princeton, and Bethany.

Next week, on April 10 and 11, the Band will give night concerts in Pottsburg and Burlington Junction, respectively. April 16, it will be the official band for the Boy Scout Jamboree in St. Joseph.

At Hopkins, last night, the Band appeared in an evening concert.

Last Wednesday, in its regular annual College assembly, the band presented the following senior music students who conducted the players in various numbers: Norman Clouse, Roy Jenkins, Don Prindle, Marion Sherer, Don Snyder, and Bob Ward. Featured soloist was Roy Jenkins and his baritone horn.

Industrial Arts Club Plans Trip to K. C.

The Industrial Arts club at the meeting, March 30, made plans to take a field trip to Kansas City. The club is going to visit an auto assembly plant, the Paxton lumber company, and the public schools.

Earl Boucher and Merle Carter have made pre-arrangements for the trip.

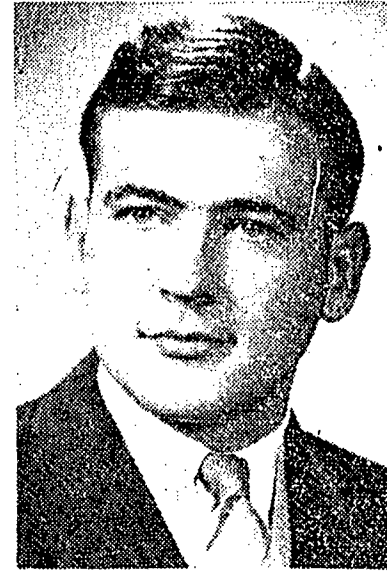

John Russell, president of the club, said he expects a large number to make the trip because of the interest shown by members of the club.

The club has a membership of 100 men and women.

Placement Bureau Makes Report on Year's Work

Mr. Everett Brown and Mr. Homer T. Phillips, members of the teacher placement bureau, have announced in their 1948-49 report, 203 placements for the year. Included in the placements were new positions for 14 superintendents, 7 principals, 119 high school teachers, 9 junior high teachers, 45 elementary teachers, 6 rural school teachers, and 3 miscellaneous instructors.

Last year's graduates totaled 199 of which 123, 64 per cent, are now in teaching positions; 37, 19 per cent have teaching positions; 37, 19 per cent have other positions; 16, 8 per cent, are in school; 3, 2 per cent, are housewives; and 15, 7 per cent, have no report of their occupations at the bureau.

Since the beginning of the bureau in 1917, 5,569 persons have enrolled for positions. Most of the calls for teachers come in April and May. The fewest come in October through December.

The average starting salaries have risen from $909.99 to $2575.49 from 1937 through 1949.

College Craft Shop Displays Handwork

Industrial Arts Course, Open to All Students, Makes Hours Useful.

That leisure time isn't necessarily wasted time has been proved by a current exhibit of craft work at the College.

Included in the display on the second floor of the Administration Building are carved leather handbags and belts, a plastic serving tray with a cut in design, a wooden tray, a copper candy dish, an aluminum tray, a wood and plastic night light and two inlaid wood pictures.

All of these objects were made by members of the handwork and crafts class and the College craft shop in the industrial arts department of the College.

Shop Is Open to All
The first is a regular industrial arts credit course, while the latter is a non-credit workshop open to all interested students, faculty members and faculty wives. The group meets Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons from 3 o'clock until 5 at the Industrial Arts Building. Mr. Howard Ringold is instructor. This is the third year that the craft shop has been offered.

Any student interested in doing craft work as a hobby or as a leisure activity can join the group any time, since the craft shop is not run on a quarterly basis. Advanced crafts students are always on hand to help those who need it.

Popularity Is Increasing
The credit course is also open to any interested in crafts and it is a requirement for industrial arts majors and minors. Enrollment in this class averages twenty students each quarter.

Dr. Donald Valk, chairman of the industrial arts department, reports that because of the popularity of both the courses in crafts and the craft shop the department is working to develop that phase of departmental work and is continuously adding new craft equipment.

The exhibit of craft work will be on display at the College until April 3.

THE ROOM THAT CHARMS

If you are looking for the latest home town scandal, the score of last night's basketball game, news about recent scientific discoveries, or merely a place to spend a quiet hour of relaxation with a current novel, you will find them all in the attractive browsing room in the College Library.

The browsing room, conveniently located at the north end of the first floor in the Library building, is an ideal place to spend an hour between classes or even an entire evening. This attractively decorated room serves as a much needed "morale-lifter" after the drabness of the classroom. The cushioned and gaily covered chairs and divans offer a welcome contrast to other hard, "spine-torturing" chairs.

A wide variety of reading material is found in this delightful room. There is a county paper from each county in northwestern Missouri, and there are several daily newspapers. The books are of such a number and variety that one can be found to please nearly any individual in any mood. The numerous magazines are arranged alphabetically from the "Atlantic Monthly" to the "Woman's Home Companion."

The browsing room with its cheerful atmosphere and abundant reading material is designed to delight the person who reads for relaxation and pleasure as well as to create within everyone an appreciation of the written works of man. Emerson said that if a man will spend five hours a day reading anything, he will be on the road to becoming an educated man.

Where else could one find as pleasant a place to spend a portion of his five hours as the browsing room in the College Library?

—Elnora Henneggin

THEY DID IT AGAIN!

Within the attractive green bindings of the second Student Directory are to be found the names and addresses of all students and personnel attending and affiliating with the College. Because of the efforts of Beta Upsilon Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, students and personnel alike may know the address, telephone number, class association, and home town of any other student and the address, telephone serial, and personnel position of faculty members.

These directories are welcomed by all persons on the campus as a friendly answer dictionary to various puzzling questions. For example a fellow may desire some information from a buddy attending school, but he doesn't know the fellow's telephone number. He reaches for his trusty student directory, and, oh, there it is in black and white!

Freshmen students entering the College look to the directory as their "third party" which acquaints them with other students and personnel. The student directory is a friend, indeed, the maker of friends with friends and friends with instructors.—Dean Knodle

IT'S THE NATION'S BAND

Despite its very heavy schedule in Washington, the United States Navy Band feels that it belongs not simply to the capital, but to all the people of the United States. Hence it is eager to go on tour for two months annually. This year Maryville is on its itinerary.

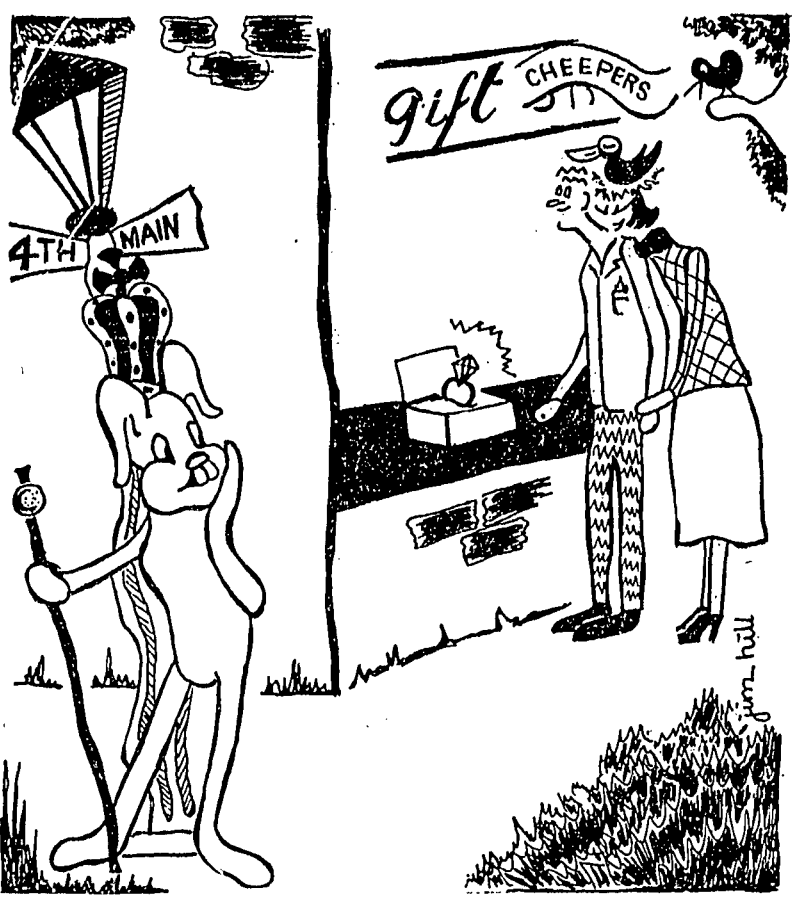

Conductor Brendler has been a member of the band for 35 years and its director since 1941. He conducts from memory without musical score and is one of the few band leaders performing such a feat.

Members of the Navy Band are selected, not alone on the basis of promising or already proven musicianship, but on the basis of character, intelligence, and education and are themselves among the "Navy's Finest." Many have M. A. and Ph. D. degrees in music from the great music conservatories of this country. Some, however, enlisted in the Navy in their middle teens and call the Navy itself their alma mater.

Gads! Will They Really Do It?

How to Graduate!

1. Bring the professor newspaper clippings dealing with his subject. If you can't find clippings dealing with his subject, bring any clipping. He thinks everything deals with his subject.
2. Look alert. Take notes eagerly. If you look at your watch, don't stare at it unbelievably and shake it.
3. Laugh at his jokes. You can tell; if he looks up from his notes and smiles expectantly, he has told a joke.
4. Ask for outside reading. You don't have to read it; just ask.
5. If you must sleep, arrange to be called at the end of the hour. It creates an unfavorable impression if the rest of the class has left and you sit there alone.
6. Be sure the book you read during lecture looks like a book from the course. If you do math in psychology and psychology in math, match the books for size and color.

Leyer and Kiburz Take Week End Trip to Ohio

Hans Leyer, freshman from Heemstede, Holland, and Kenneth Kiburz, sophomore from Charlton, Iowa, followed that collegiate custom of hitchhiking not long ago when Hans decided they should visit a pen pal in Ohio.

They hitchhiked from Maryville to Columbus, Ohio, in record time. Five rides and eighteen hours were all that they required to travel approximately 750 miles to Columbus.

Hans and Kenny went first to St. Joseph. Their next ride was to Decatur, Illinois. From Decatur they rode to Xenia, Ohio, which, in round numbers, is fifty miles from Columbus. It took two short rides to get them into Columbus.

Hans visited a pen friend, Joyce Jellinghoff, with whom he has corresponded for four years. Joyce is a sophomore at Ohio State University.

Kenny and Hans were in Columbus three days. While there Hans visited Ohio State University which is one of three universities located in that city.

Monday morning the two started back to Maryville. They were not quite so lucky coming back as going, since it took fifteen rides to get them back! Upon his return to Maryville, Hans was asked what he thought of his pen pal. He replied, "Very good!"

Wesley McClaren Plans Dental School Training

Wesley James McClaren, who was a student at the College from 1938 to 1941, recently wrote Mr. W. T. Garrett, chairman of the biology department, that he expects soon to enter a dental school, perhaps in St. Louis.

In 1941 Mr. McClaren dropped his studies at the College to enter the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis. He graduated from the latter in 1944, and since that time he has been serving in Uncle Sam's Navy.

"At the present time," writes Mr. McClaren, "I am Disbursing Officer on the USS NORTON SOUND (AV-11) located at Port Hueneme, California. The Norton Sound is a guided missile ship (the only one of its kind in the Navy at the present time). A great many intelligent scientists come on board from time to time since the ship serves as a floating laboratory for them."

"Last summer we made a cruise to the equator where a project studying cosmic rays at the lower latitudes was conducted by Dr. Winkler from Princeton University. It was surprising how young some of the people were who were assisting him in this study."

"To the crew, the cruise at times seemed dull and monotonous despite numerous attempts by the scientists to describe an electron and tell the objective of the experiment. But then you know that the work of a scientist is not always as exciting to the public as is the broken field running of a swivel hipped halfback."

"I have seen few of the old grads from Maryville since I left back in 1941. I saw Gene Nickel (a football player) some time ago. He said that he and Bill Bernau (another football player) are working at the Naval Air Missile Test Center at Point Mugu, about five miles from Port Hueneme."

"My brother is practicing dentistry in Wichita, Kansas. His office is located in the Billings Building in downtown Wichita. He was also a student of yours in 1934."

Mr. Garrett's Classes Breed Fruit Fly Mutants

Mr. W. T. Garrett's genetics classes are breeding fruit flies in connection with the class study. Fruit flies breed rapidly and are therefore an easy study for laboratory work.

At the present time they have fruit fly mutants with different colored eyes and wing structure. They have the wild type, which is normal, having red eyes, gray bodies, long wings, etc. The mutants include those with black bodies; those with white eyes; brown eyes; scarlet eyes; sepia eyes; eosin eyes; and bar eyes and those with vestigial wings; curved wings and miniature wings.

The flies are kept in a temperature controlled cabinet, at 25 degrees Centigrade, with each variety in a different bottle. Drosophila melanogaster feeds on yeast cells which grow on ripe fruit or other media.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT HAS IDEAL METHOD TRAINING TEACHERS

partment is its special browsing room for English majors. In this small but comfortably furnished room, English students may study, read, or listen to recordings of masterworks of literature. Magazines, books, and other publications of interest to majors in English are kept in the room. Eventually the department hopes to keep its reserve books there, also.

Besides the general background in English the department offers a varied and well balanced program of special extra-curricular activities.

For those students interested in creative writing, the English department offers the "Writers Club," which has been in continuous existence since 1926. Miss Mattie Dykes is faculty sponsor. This organization offers experience and criticism in all types of creative writing. Through the years, contributions of members have included essays, poetry, short stories, and even novels. Out of the group have gone many people who have had their work published in nationally known magazines and newspapers. At least two members have done graduate work in creative writing.

Writers' Club Plans Book

Future Teachers of America Strive Toward Higher Membership in Profession

Supporting the teaching profession is in essence the goal of the Future Teachers of America campus organization composed of students interested in the profession and its welfare.

Maryville first received its John Dewey charter in 1943, and since then the chapter has become a necessary element in the social life of many. The chapter is sponsored by the Community Teachers Association, and F. James Ryback, supervisor in speech at the Horace Mann laboratory school, is chairman of the FTA executive committee.

Organization is Growing. Mr. Ryback has stated that his aim is to develop the chapter into becoming a student governed and student controlled project. The organization has been growing rapidly since the beginning of the year and according to the president of the FTA, Mary Burger, the new students figure highly in the future plans.

The projects and programs of the organization have assisted in training its members in professional and civic action and have acquainted them with students of numerous high schools.

Trips Are Beneficial. Typical of the work being done by the John Dewey chapter on the State College campus was the FTA trip to Albany high school last month. Following the ideals and purposes of the FTA, Albany students were recruited to teaching through encouragement to establish an FTA club.

The FTA journeyed to Skidmore last week on a similar mission to present a program before seven high schools in that area. Junior and senior students representing the schools of Belview, Graham, Burlington Junction, Quitman, New Point, and Maitland, assembled in the Skidmore auditorium to see the FTA in action.

A short program was presented in which Dick Huff performed at the piano and a German band played some quaint music. Monty Pinner's dance was cheered by the students and Sue Condon's prose selection was received enthusiastically.

Other FTA members making the trip were Mary Burger, Naomi Smith, Joanne Hofer, August Steeve, Kay Medsker, Margaret Turner, and Gene Huston.

Forum Is Presented. College students also aided in analyzing the benefits of advanced education and described the programs of Northwest Missouri State. A discussion group from the College speech department held a forum in which the students could ask questions concerning College education. This program was in reality the FTA in motion.

Mary Burger is president of the campus chapter; Joyce Smith is vice president; Naomi Smith, secretary; and Barbara Hudson, treasurer.

Club Plans Meeting. Plans in progress include the continued formation of the centralized meetings in which the juniors and seniors of various high schools will meet at one school. Here the John Dewey chapter will act as host and provide information, entertainment, and other progressive assistance.

Aid of this sort is not only beneficial to the students affected, but is, as an aim of the Future Teachers of America, a ground work for building a better profession, a stronger country, and a happier world.

Enrollment Increases. The national Future Teachers of America was inaugurated in 1939 with the Horace Mann Centennial and chapters were formed that spring. At its birth there were fourteen chapters with 278 members; but now, ten years later, there are 271 chapters and 13,455 members.

Increase in membership is significant of the valuation of doing the things approved and necessary to make the teaching profession a worthy office in the fulfillment of one's plans, according to Mr. Ryback.

Clothing Classes Bring Back Spring Fashions. Harzfeld's, Lloyd's, Gerne's Garment Company, and Macy's were visited by the girls in the clothing classes and their instructor, Miss Elizabeth Hull, in Kansas City, Thursday, March 23.

Kappa Delta Pi Makes Plans for Founders Day

At the regular monthly meeting of Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education, on March 23, Joyce Smith was elected secretary, replacing Betty Hudson who completed her work at the close of the winter quarter.

Wilbur Pollard presented information on the National Conclave he planned to attend at Spring Mill Inn, Mitchell, Indiana, March 27-29.

Mr. James F. Rybak gave a discussion on the modern philosophy of education.

Kappa Delta Pi will hold its annual Founders Day dinner, April 24. Committees are trying to make this a big event on the campus, including the initiation of members and a dinner at Residence Hall with a guest speaker.

A special library project, similar to the plan used by President Emeritus Uel W. Lamkin in the past, is being planned.

Graceland College Will Challenge Maryville Track Power Tomorrow

Opponents Are New Foes in Dual Meet

Victory in Annual Indoor Meet Enhances Bearcat Possibility for Win.

Graceland Is Substitute

First Non-Conference Title Offers Varsity Yearlings Excellent Opportunity for Showing.

A new opponent for Graceland College, will challenge the championship Bearcat track squad in a dual meet tomorrow, April 6.

Mr. E. A. Davis, physical education director, got in touch with Graceland immediately following the cancellation of the meet for the same date with Warrensburg.

Team Has High Hopes

Maryville's repeated performance in the indoor meet at Columbia which established the Bearcats as champions once again, has given Coach Ryland Milner's team the highest hopes for another successful track season this year.

Last year the Bearcats furnished the school with a six first and one second record. The only loss of the year was a setback by Ottawa, Kansas.

One of the serious impediments toward top development of the team has been the weather. Just recently have conditions become a favorable factor. In the gymnasium, the tracksters were unable to prepare adequately.

Gridders May Be Good

Because of the open date last week end, and since this is the first meet since the indoor conference meet, Maryville gridders are expected to be near the top in performance.

Although little is known of the track prowess of the invading Northerners, records made last year by the Maryville Bearcats show a strong indication toward green and white favor.

Again available to defend his dual win will be Mick Anderson, ten point man for Maryville in the indoor meet. Anderson has proved himself capable of much responsibility, and as one of the many stalwarts of last year, is eager to establish permanent recordings of his attempts.

Bearcats Are Strong in Dashes
One of the Bearcat strongholds has been the dashes in which Zuchowski, Neil, and Carter finished one, two, three, respectively, but in this year's contest folded into a first and a fourth position with Zuchowski winning first place and Neil fourth honors.

Al Wormsley and Dick Shonemann will be on hand to represent the Bearcats for a probable five points in field events and high jumping. Al performed magnificently last year with many firsts in the shot put and discus.

Graceland will probably be thwarted in attempts for honors in the distant events, the dashes, and the field events, but has a chance to retain leadership in many other events.

Graceland Has Chance

The weakening factor in Maryville scoring is the 440 and 880 yard runs, the pole vault, and the broad jump. Prospects for strengthening these events failed in their tests at the indoor meet, and because of this indication, Graceland has an excellent opportunity to attain several points.

Norman James upholds leadership in the 440 yard tussle as a result of several meets last year, but in the indoor meet he failed to place.

Some Points Are Weak

Weakest of Bearcats' attempts has been the half-mile race, an 880 yard struggle that thrusts Maryville thineads continually into the background.

Pole vaulter, Dick Appleman, has been replaced by Dick Morrison, who managed an 11 foot heave in the indoor meet March 24. A freshman as a varsity track representative, Dick is expected to improve greatly his ability in the high leaping field.

Dick Buckridge is depended upon to swing a broad jumping first in Maryville's direction, but a greater leap than shown in the Columbia meet may have to be chalked up.

Track Schedule Includes Meets With Peru, Tarkio

Maryville meets Peru Teachers of Peru, Nebraska, Friday, April 14, in a dual track meet to be held on the Vikings' campus.

Last year the Bearcats romped into an easy 89½-40½ victory over Peru, but lost in several events. Peru will be strong in the pole vault, the broad jump, and the 440 and 880 yard races.

Corn of Peru last year leaped a distance of 21 feet, one and three-fourth inches for top honors in the broad jump. Sweeney pole vaulted into first place with a pull of 18' 6".

The following Friday, April 21, is the date for the triangular meet with Peru and Tarkio, which will be held here.

Last year Maryville collected 89.75 points to Peru's 48 and Tarkio's 34.75.

Mick Leads Distance Events

Mick Anderson, sophomore returning letterman, represented Maryville efficiently in Columbia with two firsts for almost one-fourth the total points awarded the Bearcats. Mick won the mile and two mile encounters in 4:33 and 10:03.6 times, respectively.

Shorts in Sports

By ROB DONNELLY

Southern teams once again dominated the Women's National A. A. U. tournament, held in St. Joseph for the eleventh consecutive year. The Goldblumes from Nashville, Tenn., were defeated by their intracity rivals, the Nashville Business College in the championship game. The Goldblumes were in quest of their fifth title in the last seven years and their third crown in a row.

The St. Joseph College team gave a creditable performance in the tournament, reaching the quarter-final round before bowing to N. B. C., the eventual champions. The A. I. C. team from Davenport, Ia., also reached the quarter-final round. A. I. C. defeated Goetz on the College gym this winter.

The Phillips 66 Oilers of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, won the men's A. A. U. title from the defending champions, Oakland Blue and Gold team. The tournament was once again held in Denver after a one-year absence.

The professional basketball crown was won this year by the Syracuse Nationals of the Eastern Division of the Basketball Association of America. The Nationals had the best win and lost record of the teams, but will still have to prove they are the best in the playoffs now being held.

Minneapolis finished right behind the Nationals in the percentage column, with the Indianapolis Olympians finishing third.

In the Iowa state basketball tournament held last week at Iowa City, Davenport racked up the most one-sided victory in the history of the Iowa meet. It is also being regarded as one of the most lopsided tournaments ever held in the country. The Blue Devils scored an average of 72 points per contest to their opponents' 23, a spread of 49 points per game. Four members of the Davenport squad were honored on the all-tournament team.

Last week in Madison Square Garden, City College of New York racked up the greatest triumph ever recorded in the history of basketball. In defeating Bradley University by a score of 71-68, they not only won the N. C. A. A. title but won the distinction of being the Number 1 basketball team in the country. It also marked the first time one team has captured both the N. C. A. A. and National Invitational Tournaments the same year. The Beavers won the latter tourney earlier by defeating this same Bradley outfit 69-61.

After a tabulation of all the different organizations, newspapers and magazines that pick all-star teams, the following players were

Maryville Wins Indoor Conference Meet to Retain MIAA Leadership

Coach Milner's Champions Accumulate 44 5/6 Points, Making Definite Victories in Four Events and Pressing Tightly in Several Others for Many Counters.

The Maryville Bearcats successfully defended their M. I. A. A. indoor track championship at Columbia, March 24, as they compiled a total of 44 5/6 points.

In winning their second straight title the Bearcats retained the honor of again being the host team for the indoor meet next year.

Cape Girardeau's Indians pulled a mild surprise by finishing second with 40 1-3 points. Without the services of Ralph Corse, who was lost through graduation, the Indians were not considered too seriously as a strong title contender. However, they served notice on the infant track season that they would be back strong in the outdoor meet later in the year.

Springfield and Rolla performed much as was expected, amassing 35 1-4 and 34 1-3 points respectively. Other team scores: Warrensburg 15 3-4, Kirksville 9 1-4.

Jim Scott Scores High

Individual scoring honors were captured by Rolla's Jim Scott. He bagged 12 points in winning the low hurdles, finishing second in the high hurdles, and placing third in the broad jump.

Tiny Mick Anderson of Maryville displayed his heels to all challengers as he sped to victory in the mile and two mile events. With this accomplishment, he emerged as the only Bearcat to win two events during the day's activities.

Foursome Makes Debut

Maryville's prospects for another great relay team this year assumed added color. A foursome of Neil, Coulter, Leffert, and Zuchowski covered the mile relay distance in 4:18.8 minutes to assure the Bearcats of the meet title. Zuchowski appeared earlier in the festivities with a prolific effort in the 60 yard dash. He scooted over the distance in 6.5 seconds.

Coach Ryland Milner, who has been battling the elements for two weeks in trying to round his squad into condition, stated that he was well pleased with the Bearcat debut.

The results:

Mile run—1, Anderson, Maryville; 2, Wigger, Cape Girardeau; 3, Crook, Springfield; 4, Bender, Rolla; 5, King, Springfield. Time 4:33.

60 yard dash—1, Zuchowski, Maryville; 2, Hardy, Springfield; 3, Bruns, Cape Girardeau; 4, Neil, Maryville; 5, Lees, Springfield. Time 6.5 seconds.

High jump—1, Coffey, Cape Girardeau; 5 feet 11 inches; 2, (tie), Bayless, Springfield, and Schone-man, Maryville, 5 feet 10 inches; 4, (tie), Lawrence, Kirksville, Murphy, Warrensburg, Walker, Kirksville.
